

The Great Harry

Hornpipe

Felix Burns (1863 - 1920), arranged by Kim Tame

Felix Burns, born in Perth, Scotland, was a prolific composer of popular music. His busy life included teaching music, leading a military band and serving his local church as choir director and organist; not to mention his 13 children (of whom nine survived to adulthood) with his wife, Catherine.

His 16 dance albums, included the Tower of London Dance Album, published in 1921.

Felix Burns composed for musicians of all abilities giving the opportunity to players at all levels to get together, make music and bring joy to others.
