

I know that my redeemer lives

(Tune - Torquay)

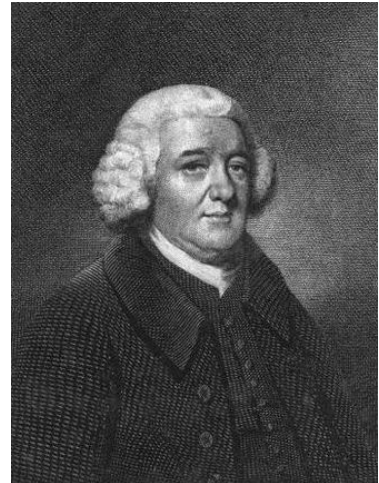

Lyrics: Samuel Medley (1738-1799)

Tune: William Youens (1834-1911)
arranged by Kim Tame

Samuel Medley was born in Hertfordshire, England, and at the age of 14 was apprenticed to an oilman. He then served in the Royal Navy, but was discharged in 1759 after being wounded.

He was a school teacher for a time, then joined the Baptist ministry, where he had a particular ministry among the sailors at the port of Liverpool.

Little is known of William Youens, who lived and died in Buckinghamshire, England - any information is appreciated.

*I know that my Redeemer lives -
What joy the blest assurance gives.
He lives, he lives who once was dead,
He lives my everlasting head.*

*He lives, to bless me with his love,
He lives, to plead for me above
He lives, my hungry soul to feed;
He lives, to help in time of need.*

*He lives and grants me daily breath;
He lives and I shall conquer death;
He lives, my mansion to prepare;
He lives to lead me safely there.*

*He lives, all glory to his name
He lives, my Saviour, still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives;
I know that my Redeemer lives!*
