Tune: Old French melody

A day, a day of glory

Lyrics: John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

Tune: Old French melody

A day, a day of glory!
A day that ends our woe!
A day that tells of triumph,
Against the vanquished foe!
Yield summer's brightest sunrise
To this December morn;
Lift up your gates, ye princes,
And let the child be born.

With "Gloria in excelsis"
Archangels tell their mirth;
With "Kyrie Eleison"
Men answer upon earth;
And angels swell the triumph,
And mortals sound the horn,
Lift up your gates, ye princes,
And let the child be born.

He comes, his throne the manger,
He comes, his shrine the stall.
The ox and ass his courtiers,
Who made and governs all.
The "house of bread" his birthplace,
The prince of wine and corn,
Lift up your gates, ye princes,
And let the child be born.

Then bar the gates, that henceforth
None thus may passage win,
Because the prince of Israel
Alone hath entered in;
The earth, the sky, the ocean,
His glorious way adorn;
Lift up your gates, ye princes,
And let the child be born.
