

The Lochnagar

Strathspey

Traditional, arr. Kim Tame after Felix Burns (1864 - 1920)

Felix Burns, born in Perth, Scotland, was a prolific composer of popular music. His busy life included teaching music, and serving his local church as choir director and organist; not to mention his nine children with his wife, Catherine.

His sixteen dance albums included the Flag of Empire dance album, published in 1911.

Felix Burns composed for musicians of all abilities giving the opportunity to players at all levels to get together, make music and bring joy to others. His dance programmes often included traditional folk tunes, like this one.

If you like this piece, there are many others by Felix Burns at The Sheet Music Stack.
