Hornpipe

Felix Burns (1863 - 1920), arr. Kim Tame 2015

Felix Burns, born in Perth, Scotland, was a prolific composer of popular music. His busy life included teaching music, leading a military band and serving his local church as choir director and organist; not to mention his 13 children, nine of whom survived to adulthood, with his wife, Catherine.

His 16 dance albums included the Tower of London (1921) and Black and White (1922) Dance Albums, which were published posthumously. This hornpipe appears in both.

Felix Burns composed for musicians of all abilities, giving the opportunity for players of different levels to get together, make music and bring joy to others.
